

Print Jobs

Technologies Used: Windows Server, Web-based Client, MS SQL Server, Windows Scripting Host, Windows Event Handler
This software is for tracking printing carried out using printer shares. The data recorded includes the username of the user printing, the file name and the printer name. This software is used to track the number of prints done by each employee. Its notable features are:

- Central Database Server.
- Web interface accessible over an intranet or internet
- Web based reports giving an exact picture of expenses being incurred due to employees abuse of printing resources