

Letter Management System

Technologies Used: Windows Client, ActiveX, Linux Server, MySQL This software is for tracking official letters sent to company clients. It provides facilities for inserting, editing, deleting as well as searching of letters by date, subject and/or by the client name it was sent to. Its notable features are:

- Central Database Server running on Linux
- GUI running on Windows client
- Accessible through Network
- Auto Generation of Reference Numbers